

GRADUATE'S GUIDE TO INSURANCE

The month of May brings upon many high school and college graduations. These graduates will then have to enter what many refer to as “the real world”, which means dealing with insurance.

Along with all of the new, exciting opportunities these graduates face, comes new risks, particularly financial risks.

Insurance is a major protection against financial risk, and having knowledge can make you a better consumer.

This guide, called The Trusted Choice Graduate's Guide to Insurance, may help you to understand insurance a little better. It introduces you to different types of insurance by addressing some common questions. If you have specific questions that are not answered within this guide, please let us know.
